

A close-up photograph of a purple iris flower in bloom, set against a background of brown wood chips. The flower has six petals, with a mix of light and dark purple hues. Its green leaves are long and narrow, extending from the base of the flower. The wood chips are small, irregular pieces of wood, creating a textured ground cover.

miss me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Bethlehem his city: for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.
