

Nehemiah 11:26 And at Jeshua, and at Moladah, and at Bethphelet,

A close-up photograph of a diverse bouquet of flowers. The arrangement includes several pink carnations in various stages of bloom, clusters of small purple hydrangea-like flowers, a single large, deep red rose, and a white lily bud. The flowers are set against a dark, almost black background, which makes their colors stand out. The lighting is soft, highlighting the textures of the petals.
