

Genesis 24:25 She said moreover unto him, We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in.

A scenic view of a geothermal pool, likely in a national park. The water is a vibrant, clear blue in the center, transitioning to a yellowish-green near the rocky, mineral-rich edges. The pool is surrounded by a dense forest of tall, dark evergreen trees. The sky is bright blue with a few wispy clouds. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.
