

A close-up photograph of a rusty metal pipe. The pipe is filled with water, and the water's surface is clear, reflecting the surrounding green leaves and branches. The pipe shows signs of weathering and rust, particularly along the top edge. The background is a soft-focus view of more greenery, suggesting an outdoor setting. The text is overlaid on the upper half of the image in a white, serif font.

Genesis 08:03 And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.
