

A close-up photograph of a field of lupines. The central focus is a tall, slender stem of a pink lupine, densely packed with small, bell-shaped flowers. To the left and right, other lupine stems are visible, some with blue flowers and others with green buds. The background is a soft-focus expanse of green lupine leaves and stems, creating a lush, natural setting. The lighting is bright and natural, highlighting the textures of the petals and leaves.

Acts 10:37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;
