

A decorative waterfall cascading over large, reddish-brown rocks, with green grasses in the foreground. The water flows from the top left towards the bottom right, creating a series of small pools and rapids. The rocks are of various sizes and are arranged to create a natural-looking waterfall. The foreground is dominated by tall, green grasses that are slightly out of focus. The background shows more rocks and some greenery, including what appears to be a small evergreen tree.

Genesis 19:11 And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.
