Jeremiah 48:39 They shall howl, saying , How is it broken down!
how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.
