

2nd Corinthians 11:28 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.

A close-up photograph of water splashing over a dark, textured surface, possibly a fountain or a sculpture, with a background of green trees and foliage. The water is captured in motion, creating a dynamic and refreshing scene. The background is filled with various shades of green, from deep forest greens to lighter, sunlit greens, suggesting a lush, natural setting. The overall composition is vibrant and energetic.
