

The background of the image is a dense, out-of-focus green foliage. Two butterflies are visible: one is a monarch-like butterfly with orange wings and black markings, perched on a leaf in the upper right; the other is a black butterfly with red and white markings, perched on a leaf in the lower left. The text is overlaid in white, bold, sans-serif font.

2nd Kings 23:15 Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burned the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burned the grove.
