

A scenic waterfall in a lush green forest. The water flows over several large, dark rocks, creating a series of small cascades. The surrounding vegetation is dense and vibrant green, with some yellow flowers visible in the foreground. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.

Genesis 15:17 And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces.
