

A close-up photograph of a butterfly with vibrant orange wings and dark markings, resting on a light-colored, textured surface. The butterfly is positioned horizontally across the middle of the frame. The background is softly blurred, showing more of the textured surface and a hint of a dark, possibly metallic, object. The overall lighting is bright and natural, highlighting the intricate details of the butterfly's wings and the texture of the surface it is on.

2nd Chronicles 16:14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art: and they made a very great burning for him.
