

2nd Chronicles 20:25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three

A butterfly with black and white patterned wings is resting on a light-colored fabric. The butterfly's wings are spread out, showing a complex pattern of black spots and lines on a white background. The fabric has a subtle texture and is slightly wrinkled. The lighting is soft, creating gentle shadows around the butterfly.
