

Revelation 08:07 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

A background image showing a vibrant rainbow arching across a cloudy sky. The scene is set in a landscape with silhouettes of trees on the left, a tall streetlight in the lower left, and a communication tower on the right. The overall tone is dramatic and atmospheric.
