

Luke 20:32 Last of all the woman died also.

A close-up photograph of a field of golden wheat stalks, with the text 'Luke 20:32 Last of all the woman died also.' overlaid in white. The wheat is ripe and has a warm, golden-brown hue. The stalks are densely packed and show some movement, possibly from a breeze. The lighting is bright, creating strong highlights and shadows that emphasize the texture of the grain.
