

A close-up photograph of several vibrant red tulips in full bloom. The petals are a rich, saturated red, and the centers of the flowers show dark, almost black, stamens and a pale yellow pistil. The background is softly blurred, showing more green foliage and hints of other flowers, creating a shallow depth of field that emphasizes the texture and color of the foreground tulips.

Genesis 43:33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marvelled one at another.
