

A close-up photograph of several vibrant pink flowers, likely azaleas, with green leaves. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some showing prominent stamens. The background is a soft, out-of-focus green and pink.

2nd Kings 05:01 Now Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable, because by him the LORD had given deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was a leper.